

Tuesday, 17 March 2009

Joint meeting of Balkans Forum and Human Security and Global Governance Forum

Security sector reform in Serbia and the Western Balkans

Résidence Palace - Conference Room
155 Rue de la Loi, 1040 Brussels

PROGRAMME

- 10.00 Welcome and introduction by the Chair
Alyson Bailes, Professor, University of Iceland
- 10.05 'Why and how to evaluate a security sector reform in transitional societies?'
Sonja Stojanović, Director, Centre for Civil-Military Relations, Belgrade
- 10.20 'Has Serbia's security sector reached "a point of no return" to undemocratic governance?'
Filip Ejdus, Executive Director, Centre for Civil-Military Relations, Belgrade
- 10.35 Reflections on the security sector reform in transitional societies
Simon Lunn, Senior Fellow, Geneva Centre for the Democratic Control of Armed Forces (DCAF), Brussels
- 11.00 Open discussion led by the Chair
- 12.00 Meeting ends

This event is held under the auspices of the European Integration and Citizenship programme and the Europe in the World programme, which is run in partnership with the Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation

